

Achim Wehrmann

Director Shipping, Federal Ministry of Transport and Digital Infrastructure

---

Achim Wehrmann, born in 1969, worked from 1996 to 2000 in the German Bundestag as the Scientific assistant of the Deputy Speaker for Transport of the SPD parliamentary group and Member of Parliament, Annette Faße.

In 2001 he started his career in the Federal Ministry of Transport and Digital Infrastructure as the personal assistant to the Parliamentary State-Secretary and Member of Parliament, Angelika Mertens.

After working as the Deputy Head of Division responsible for Maritime shipping policy, maritime industry and maritime ports since August 2003, he was appointed Head of Division in September 2004.

Following this, in 2007 Mr. Wehrmann was made Head of the Division responsible for National maritime shipping and inland waterway transport policy as well as ports industry.

Mr. Wehrmann is Head of the Shipping Directorate of the Federal Ministry of Transport and Digital Infrastructure since October 2008.